

Teaching Toronto

TESL Toronto Idea Swap and Contest

To celebrate the launch of our new website, www.tesltoronto.org, TESL Toronto invites you to share your ideas for Teaching Toronto.

How do you use Toronto to teach ESL? Or use ESL to teach about Toronto?

All ideas – from simple tips to multi-stage lessons – are welcome, including:

- T.O.-centric lesson plans
- Original teaching materials
- Indispensable resources
- Quizzes
- Classroom activities
- Class trips
- Methods for Toronto-fying existing materials
- Websites or blogs

The top submission will win a gift certificate to English Central bookstore and free registration for TESL Toronto's spring conference. Three others will be selected by lottery to win additional prizes.

Teaching Toronto ideas will be shared on TESL Toronto's website, and winners announced at the TESL Toronto Conference in May.

Submission guidelines:

Send in your ideas (maximum 3 submissions/person) to info@tesltoronto.org. In your email please include your name, telephone number, school/employer, any relevant attachments, and a brief explanation of your submission.

Deadline: Monday April 11, 2011
